

Groove with the flavors of Hip hop as Mississippi Rapper Yung Bo has Come Up With Latest Tracks

Upcoming Mississippi rapper Yung Bo is paving his way in the music industry with latest hip hop tracks which are currently roaming through playlists of music lovers.

Michigan City, Nov 16, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Upcoming Mississippi rapper Yung Bo is creating a huge buzz among the hip hop enthusiasts with latest tracks '13' and 'Treason'. Churning out the flavors of hip hop and rap, this artist is providing the listeners something special and new to listen to. The blend of digital music and engaging rap verses works like a treat to ears. The artist has done an amazing job with eclectic performance, taking the listeners somewhere between rap and singing. His vocal skills and rhythmic flow match with the lyrical flow of the well-written verses.

The song '13' provides a sad mellow vibe that is juxtaposed with the beats of digital music. The rap sounds more like a lamentation of the artist's own life and self-realization. The other song 'Treason' is also written in an emotional manner which is very engaging and relatable at some points. With a clock time of 2 minutes and 16 seconds, the song is short but the impact of it lasts long. Some of his other tracks like 'No Dealins', 'Exotic Cookie', 'How I Feel', etc are examples of his consistency and individuality.

With a dream to cater to listeners about what they find relatable and engaging, Yung Bo is creating a different type of catchy music that provides that space to evoke the emotions. He is quiet about his music believes it can go far and proves it with these latest tracks.
