

INDIAN WOMEN INSTITUTIONAL LEAGUE (IWILIndia) EMPOWERS 8000 WOMEN ENTREPRENEURS AND 85 BUSINESS SCHOOLS ACROSS 20 CITIES

The Women Oriented Nonprofit Organization IWIL India has been working diligently towards women Empowerment and incubation during the pandemic and aims to Empower more than a Million Women businesses By 2025 under the Mission Aatamnirbhar Bharat

New Delhi, Nov 26, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Indian Women Institutional League, otherwise known as IWIL India is a non-profit organization that has been following the diligent goal of mentoring and incubating one million Women Entrepreneurs by 2025.

To nurture the leaders of tomorrow, IWIL aims to publicize the profound contribution of women to the country's GDP; encouraging women entrepreneurship, capacitating women leaders, and emboldening the women-led business ecosystem to frame a future of socially and economically independent women. In its mission to achieve the same, it has built a large footprint across 20 cities spanning 85 business schools and 5000 plus women entrepreneurs building awareness on entrepreneurship amongst aspiring and budding entrepreneurs, during the pandemic and bolstering the larger goal of Aatamnirbhar Bharat

IWIL India was founded in 2015 with the primary goal of building a digital skillset and helping women scale their businesses through technology. They have run several other programs like "Prerna", "Vivoki" and "Shakti" to inspire young women towards bracing their skill sets in technology and helping them become independent.

"IWIL India advocates Women's entrepreneurship and empowerment through Technology Cohorts, Incubation workshops, networking events, and capacity building. Indian Women Institutional League (IWIL) has already covered approximately 55,000 women, over 400 startups, and 85 Business Schools across 25 cities in India over its journey of two years.

Our recent program "Shakti" that was organized for Women Startups across India looking for Business Funding and industry-ready induction" said Deepa Sayal, the Chief Patron and President of IWIL India, who is also a serial entrepreneur and CEO at Vivoki India.

IWIL India also guides future entrepreneurs through premier programs and events that include Entrepreneurial Workshops, Awareness Programs, Fundraising, Tech Hackathons, and Digital Skill-building across business schools such as IIMs Ranchi, BITS Pilani, Dubai, MDI Gurgaon, ABVSME, JNU, TCS Ion, Christ college through the IWIL Centre of Excellence towards building an Aatamnirbhar Bharat. We

We have also done several Impact and awareness programs for Women during the Pandemic. These included virtual workshops on mental health, career transition, self-confidence and building and inclusion & Diversity in partnerships with several prestigious organizations like Confederation of Indian Industry, Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry, TCS, and India Israel Women Business Forum spanning across India

Female entrepreneurs have contributed immensely to the Indian economy, with women-owned businesses employing over 13 million people. Studies have revealed that 1/3 of Indian women entrepreneurs work in the agriculture sector, followed by manufacturing and retail trade. Deepa Sayal and her team at IWILIndia are looking to take it a notch higher by helping women leverage the power of technology to grow their business to contribute to the Indian GDP.
