

Jayne Wyk Proves Herself as an Indispensable Talent in the Hip-hop Industry With the New Video 'MAD @ ME'

Female rapper from Florida Jayne Wyk is receiving waves of appreciation from all for her brilliant rap skills and exquisite taste of melody in the new video 'MAD @ ME'.

Florida City, Nov 8, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - How often do you come across a hip-hop sound and wonder how the rapper behind the mic manages to create such gorgeous beats filled with all appropriate ingredients necessary to stand out. One such name is artist Jayne Wyk, born as Jessica Rashelle Boldin who is bringing to the scene her enormous potentiality and artistic abilities to deeply engrave her mark in the hip-hop scene. The Female rapper from Florida doesn't succumb to the already paved path but rather embarks on a completely different journey to make a name for herself and is receiving much appreciation from listeners all over for her tremendous strong and powerful vocals. Unlike new artists who opt for familiar sounds, this rapper has curated a project that beautifully highlights her attractive traits.

'MAD @ ME' featuring YANA G is her latest musical hip-hop video that probably shows her best performance to date. Two words become the notable highlight of this record- flow and beat. It is one of her most versatile flows on the record that keeps the whole musical journey entertaining and pumped up. The energy, the passion, and the boldness with which this dynamic new rapper has portrayed her creativity deserve a huge applaud. Her stylistic moves while not hampering her magical flow offers an unmatched charisma to the song that lets the listener at once understand her raw potential. The lyrically creative track combined with gorgeous and rhythmic sounds lets the audience enjoy a different kind of hip-hop. The artist is a stylish performer and is seen sporting a hooded black jacket as she raps consistently to the melodic beats to keep the spirit alive. Her promptness, her groove, and swagger filled attitude, everything has been mixed at the right proportions to solidify the song in the listener's mind.

Coming from the United States, Jayne Wyk is one of the brightest upcoming female artists from the Dirty South whose rap skills are not distinguishable from the others. The song 'MAD @ ME' is built under the label Groundbreakin' Entertainment delivers a mixture of old school aesthetic rap mixed seamlessly with today's Dirty South trap music sound making it a top choice for contemporary music lovers of today. The rapper's legitimate rapping style remains deeply rooted in meaningful concepts that are finely built over trunk-rattling and head-bobbling beats. The artist and her stand-apart musicianship truly mark the beginning of a new era of Dirty South hip-hop and rap. Listen to her new record and previous two video singles on YouTube and follow her on Facebook for more details.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oEHSQvvkuyc>

Media Contact

Music Promotion Club

info@musicpromotion.club

Source : Jayne Wyk

See on IssueWire