

Jennifer Ramirez Gomez, MD, General Practitioner

Get to know General Practitioner Dr. Jennifer Ramirez Gomez, who serves patients in Puerto Rico.

New York City, Nov 19, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Gomez is a general practitioner practicing in San Juan and Bayamon, Puerto Rico. She works in various San Juan government-affiliated hospitals, the Emergency Department of Doctor's Center Hospital Bayamon, and is a part of the team of the federal-funded program for contact tracing of COVID-19.

Among her responsibilities, she offers remote consultations and oversees protocol and health measures for the municipality of Toa Baja. She also provides services such as physical exams, routine screening tests, health promotion, as well as the diagnosis and treatment of multiple illnesses and injuries.

At the start of her academic career, Dr. Ramirez graduated with her undergraduate degree in Cellular Biology from the University of Puerto Rico - Río Piedras Campus in 2013. She then went on to earn her medical degree from Universidad Autonoma de Guadalajara in 2019, after which she completed her residency at Doctor's Center Hospital Bayamon.

In the medical profession, a general practitioner (GP) is a medical doctor who treats acute and chronic illnesses and provides preventive care and health education to patients. A GP manages types of illnesses that present in an undifferentiated way at an early stage of development and may require urgent intervention.

On a more personal note, Dr. Ramirez speaks both English and Spanish.
