

Jin Fu Consulting Announces Sale of Historic Engler Collection of Rock and Roll Autographed Guitars and Memorabilia

Pittsburgh, Nov 9, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Jin Fu Consulting Announces Sale of Historic Engler Collection of Rock and Roll Autographed Guitars and Memorabilia

Jin Fu Consulting is proud to announce that the single greatest collection of autographed guitars from the last five decades of Rock n' Roll collected by one of the greatest rock promoters in history is now available for purchase. The Engler Collection is comprised of 220 individual guitars signed by both legendary solo artists and groups reaching back to the 1950s. Included in this spectacular collection are 660 pieces of individual memorabilia including articles of clothing, tickets, set lists, poster, signed contracts for performance and personal letters as well as over 1000 backstage passes, all original. Many of the guitars include pictures of the artists taken at the time of their performance when these guitars were signed.

This collection has been assembled over the lifetime of Pittsburgh-based rock 'n' roll promoter, Rich Engler. Rich has been booking the greatest acts in music since the late 1960s and is still a hard-working promoter today. His work has spawned biographies and a documentary on his life. As Rich Engler noted, "I've spent the past 60 years promoting the greatest rock bands in the world and have assembled this collection painstakingly one performance at a time while getting to know these artists personally. There is nothing to compare to this collection! I have been enjoying this collection but now, at 74 years old, it's time to pass on this fabulous collection for others to cherish!"

Who are some of the spectacular artists whose signed guitars grace the walls where The Engler Collection is housed? Just a small sampling of the 220 signed guitars includes Aerosmith, Jimmy Page, B. B. King, The Everly Brothers, Billy Joel, George Benson, Bon Jovi, Bruce Springsteen, Chicago, Robert Plant, Elton John, Merle Haggard, Eric Clapton, Paul McCartney, Jefferson Airplane, Buddy Guy, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Bo Diddley, Neil Young, Jeff Beck, REM, Santana, Tom Petty, Dave Matthews, ZZ Top and Coldplay. Many of the guitars include the tickets for the night that the artist performed, programs, posters, backstage passes, set lists and other pieces of memorabilia. The collection also has 13 Gold and Platinum records and special signed shadowbox display of the Jimi Hendrix album "Are You Experienced".

We can confidently say that no single greater collection of rock and roll memorabilia and autographed guitars exists anywhere. The Engler Collection is made available for purchase as a single unified body - all the guitars and all the memorabilia will be sold to a single buyer. The collection is available for inspection to bona fide buyers, interested parties may contact:
