

Knoxville College Receives Grant from United Way for Pandemic Relief Seminars

Knoxville, Nov 4, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Knoxville College will be hosting a special five-week series of seminars titled "Pandemic Relief Seminars." These special seminars will focus on managing your finances during the COVID-19 crisis with talks on finance, access to services, and personal budgeting.

"Knoxville College is proud to partner with the United Way to create this program. We know this COVID-19 pandemic has affected a lot of lives and we hope this program will be a benefit to all who are able to join us. This will be the first of several events hosted by the college to spur change in the community through service." – Dr. Keith Lindsey, Interim President, Knoxville College.

Register and watch the live-streaming five-week seminar series at <https://knoxvillecollege.edu/pandemic-relief-seminars/>

The seminars are free and are open to the general public.
