Noida, Nov 18, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - After crossing 500 downloads on Dashboard Ninja and 100 downloads on Theme Kinetik, Ksolves India Ltd has announced up to 10% discount on its much-downloaded Odoo Apps and Themes*. The discount period will begin on 13th-Nov-2020 to 30th-Nov-2020, and in the 18 days discount period, customers can buy discounted apps and themes from both Ksolves Odoo Store (store.ksolves.com) and the official Odoo App Store (apps.odoo.com).

Ksolves is providing its much-loved apps and themes at a discounted price so that everyone can afford to have a wonderful app/theme for their Odoo ERP and take their businesses to a whole new level.

While discussing the reason for the discount, The Odoo Development Head of Ksolves India Ltd, Mr. Om Prakash, said, "We all know with the current pandemic, most of the SMEs are facing a financial crisis due to lockdown in many countries. To help SMEs and startups smooth transition to the online world, we have introduced a small token of gratitude. We are excited to work with our full pace just like we used to do, and we are confident that this pandemic is helping us to prepare for the upcoming challenges."

Market Forecast

As we understand, due to the current pandemic situation, all the companies are working remotely. This is the time when businesses can retain their customers by having a smooth online transition and presence. While discussing the current market trends with the Head of Business Development at Ksolves India Ltd. Ms. Kirti Sharma, she said, "At Ksolves, we work on today for the better tomorrow. Even though we have been working from home for the past eight months, our revenue is least affected by this pandemic. Sometimes we face some issues in visiting and meeting our clients, but all thanks to online meetings, we are now connected with our clients more than we used to be during normal days. We are providing some exciting offers and discounts to our clients just to let them know that we are with them doesn't matter what happens."

The notion of pandemic and stress is hardly visible when we see the growth and sales figures of Ksolves. The company's Odoo Apps and Themes are a significant part of this success. The enthusiasm in the development and marketing is visible. Further to our discussion with the marketing team of Ksolves, we learned about the upcoming Black Friday Sale on Ksolves Store that will be announced shortly.
