Atlanta, Nov 4, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Manisha Holiday is proud to announce the release of her new book “Victorious: A Journey to 40”. The book which celebrates her 40th birthday is based on the true story of Manisha’s life growing up on the south side of Chicago. From a hard and difficult beginning being raised by a single mother, and having her first child at just 15 to the woman she is today at 40,

Manisha wants to show that even though she has had it tough dealing with all the challenges providing for her child at a young age, juggling school, and growing up too soon, she overcame and has become a better woman for it.

In this book, she details her story of a girl who started life dealt the short end of the stick becoming the successful, happy woman she is today. She wants to show others how she turned a hopeless situation as a victim of abuse and trauma into a life of victory and that they can do the same too.
