Get to know Internist Dr. Maricel Zayas Soto, who serves patients in Lake Mary, Florida.

New York City, Dec 4, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Soto is an internist with a focus on post-acute care. She is in practice with Central Florida Inpatient Medicine in Lake Mary, Florida.

Since 2001, Central Florida Inpatient Medicine is a Hospitalist Group shifting the paradigm to meet patient needs throughout their healthcare journey. The leadership team, holding over 50 years' experience in value-based care, has been actively observing the landscape in healthcare as it continues to evolve. They understand the importance of population health management strategies by bridging the gap throughout the continuum of care. They discharge over 70,000 patients from the 10+ hospitals where they round, while also seeing the patients in over 70 post-acute centers and serving over 5,000 wound care/podiatry clients with a focus on providing quality care to all.

Following the completion of her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine - Virginia Campus in 2010, Dr. Soto went on to further her training. She completed her residency with the US Army at San Antonio Military Medical Center in Fort Sam Houston, TX. She went on to serve as a military Internal Medicine physician until 2018 and is now licensed to practice medicine in Florida and Virginia.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.
