About The Country And Its Beauty. Also, This Visit Making Tarun Trikha's Experience Full Of Information And Goodness.

Tarun Trikha has visited numerous places in and out of the country. This time he planned to visit India's central part, Madhya Pradesh as he had heard a lot about the natural, historical and adventurous place in the state during his schooling days from teaches and friends. According to Tarun Trikha, it is full of information history, wildlife and natural adventures that's why he has chosen that for this tour with the permission of all his companions on the journey.

Because Tarun Trikha is a student studying in 12th so he visited there in last winter vacation in 2019. He set up on Friday morning for his tour with his friends and family in full swing. He reached there by the noon and after getting refreshment he executed his plan without wasting any time with all other tour mates.

On the very first day, they decided to visit Khajuraho, world heritage site to be fascinated by the stunning temples and architecture of which is world-famous. Tarun Trikha has always been a lover of historical journeys and here in MP, he was getting many more with History. In Khajuraho, according to him the architecture of temples and the structures was very good and this added much to his knowledge to be a better scholar. For him, it was a day of tiredness, full of facts and particulars of the old days.

He returned to the hotel in the van which he booked for the day at night. The next morning was another day for him for some upcoming time loaded with grasping features of the state.

So Tarun Trikha with everybody moved to Bandhavgarh National Park on Saturday. He had heard a lot about this park from his friends in the school so he was very curious to reach there. He noticed and saw the park's charms with the highest density of Bengal tigers, species of mammals, and species of avifauna. He said after visiting the park that the safari and the thrill was the reason for him to be selected for one of the trips of this visit of tour and travelling. He spent the whole of the day in the national park and returned before the dusk.

Next day was Sunday and he took Pachmarhi Hill Station to travel that day. He stated that was the most soothing day of the tour as it was a trip full of natural beauties. But above all, he pleased his sense with the chilled and cosy glimpses on the top of the hill. He loved to be closer to the clouds. Air was passing through his senses those were the most amazing moment of the tour that made him feather-light forgetting the world.

He informed that his visit was to end up on Sunday but the attraction of the state compiled him to spend one more day there on the visit of Ujjain. He said that was one of the holiest cities in India. The most popular attraction of Ujjain was Kumbh Mela which collected millions of people to the festival. He was also one of those millions of people but not common at all. He noticed, received, and captivated almost all the vibes coming out of that holy hub of the Country.

Being a student, Tarun Trikha was carrying several infatuations for tour and travelling. He didn't want to explore some specific type of place. Despite he craved for the verities of places with the versatility of features and facts of their kind so that he might enhance his knowledge as well as gather information for various attractions all over the world.
