

The Perfect Holiday Gift Idea: Handcrafted Beaded Cheese Canapé Knives with Mango Wood Cheese Block

The Glass Artistry collection of formal and elegant tableware and kitchen utensils make it easy to create gorgeous appetizer platters -- an exciting compliment to creative charcuterie boards.

Costa Mesa, Nov 20, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - With Thanksgiving fast approaching and the holiday season nearly here, these are the days when the dining room has its moment. The Glass Artistry collection of formal and elegant tableware adds a touch of sophistication to any formal dining table.

Let's take a look at the Handcrafted Beaded Cheese Knives that comes with its own Mango Wood Cheese Block.

Handmade lampwork beads are added to create one-of-a-kind serving utensils. Use the three beaded cheese knives while serving canapés, or spreading butter, soft cheeses, or to compliment a charcuterie board.

Each utensil is made from stainless steel decorated with handcrafted Italian Murano glass beads. The tableware beads are individually created in an oxygen/propane flame. Each bead starts as a rod of glass, is then melted onto a steel rod (called a "mandrel"), and then shaped while molten. The finished bead goes directly into a digital kiln for approximately 8 hours where it gains strength and durability.

If you are unfamiliar with Italian Murano glass, here is a bit of history behind this extraordinary glass. In 1291, the mayor of Venice, Italy ordered that all glass factories move to the island of Murano to prevent harmful factory fires from affecting Venice. Since then, Murano glass has developed a reputation for beauty and color. Some of the finest glass art pieces coveted by collectors are created with Murano glass.

Each utensil bead comes in one of seven colors that will become a "staple" in every household. By having each piece available in every color, customers can easily add new pieces to their collection over time.

This elegant product line of beaded tableware and kitchen utensils will also make gift-giving much easier this holiday season. Glass Artistry by Angie has you covered for all your gift-giving needs. And, as always, satisfaction is 100% guaranteed.
