

The Truth! behind Janix Mendez

On (Sat Nov. 17th) it was alleged that singer-songwriter Janix Mendez was spotted speechless after massive argument involving parents of boyfriend Isaiah Feliciano.

Fresno, Nov 7, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - It was reported that singer-songwriter, Janix Mendez has allegedly witnessed a massive argument between boyfriend Isaiah Feliciano and his parents. Apparently, it occurred during the night-time of that day and as far as we see the singer's reaction, it was unbelievably shooked. Mendez took place at a time where verbal abuse and emotional abuse was an illegal thing but despite the drama that happened recently with Isaiah's parent, Mendez seems to handle the situation pretty recklessly, although the singer-songwriter can't seem to find as much help as she needs for the situation to never happen again.

We may not know much about Isaiah's toxic parents but as far as Mendez is concerned, he needs a better environment. The scene took place at their beloved home where they feel comfortable in, and it seems like from an almost 2 hours argument, Mendez has had enough of it, leading for her to seek help for the whole family. "Mental health, emotional health, physical health is an important relief." as the singer-songwriter stated (Now deleted Instagram story post).

Opinions:

It is important to seek help when it comes to toxic parenthoods, toxic environment, toxic everything. We need that help, not the streets.

We live in a world where people are dying and it's important now to stay at home, where the horrible things that happens in life don't go towards to. Does it take a bullet to understand? Unnecessary, malicious behaviour.
