25 November 2020, New York, USA: In a recent development WebBee Global, a leading app development and ERP integration services provider company has launched a yearly subscription plan for its Amazon Multi-Channel Fulfillment App for Shopify.

Airmont, Nov 26, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - In a recent development WebBee Global, leading app development and ERP integration services provider company has launched a yearly subscription plan for its Amazon Multi-Channel Fulfillment App for Shopify. Priced at $320 yearly, the plan offers a seller unlimited order processing in comparison to its existing Advance plan priced at 50$ monthly for an unlimited number of orders. According to officials at WebBee, this yearly plan will present a seller whose orders are simultaneously growing to have a substantial amount of saving over its Amazon Multi Channel Fulfillment Fee.

Auto Multi-Channel Fulfillment app by WebBee lets a seller have its order on Shopify/BigCommerce to be fulfilled automatically by Amazon FBA utilizing from Amazon fulfillment centers. The app is highly recommended by WebBee to sellers that are growing and requires seamless sync of customer data between Amazon FBA and Shopify without separate login into systems and manual data feeding. Along with huge saving upon Amazon Multi Channel Fulfillment Fee, the app helps a seller to reap the following process-related benefits like:-

- The app aids a seller to have immense control over inventory of items stocked at Amazon fulfillment centers in order to tracked and shipped at customer's door address.
- While syncing data between Amazon and Shopify the app considerably reduces manual errors thus preventing unnecessary delay occurring in order processing.
- The app safeguards a seller from stringent seller policy of Amazon being as a third party store owners. Selling from Amazon has hazards of a seller account suspension even on account of fake review by unscrupulous sellers.
- Provides comfortable access to mammoth Amazon FBA resources including huge fulfillment centers spread across different locations globally backed by packing and delivery services by dedicated Amazon staff.
- Enhances customer satisfaction through Auto Multi Channel Fulfillment App by faster and prompt delivery of orders accurately in time.
- The fees charged by Amazon multi-channel fulfillment fees competitively are far affordable and simpler than other 3PL logistics companies. The fee diminishes as many as the number of orders increases.

According to the CEO of WebBee Global Abhishek Jain, "The yearly Advanced plan launched for Amazon MCF for Shopify will help sellers to save a huge amount on Amazon Multi Channel Fulfillment fee and of great aid to the seller whose orders keep on growing on regular basis."
