

Whizlabs Grand Sale is Back with 50% OFF SITEWIDE

Bengaluru, Nov 23, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Whizlabs has recently announced the beginning of its annual Black Friday Sale event for the year 2020. The pioneer online certification training platform brings a 50% discount on all offerings available sitewide, with an additional 20% on the annual subscription. The Black Friday Sale would start on 24th November 2020 and last for eight days until 1st December 2020.

The CEO and Co-founder, Krishna Srinivasan, stated on this occasion, “It is my pleasure to announce the Whizlabs Black Friday Sale for the year 2020. I know that this year has not been easy for many of us. However, looking for opportunities in times of adversity with the beacon of learning can always help us emerge victoriously.

Our learning courses have been helping many professionals worldwide, and the Black Friday Sale brings something unique for all. We will be providing a 50% sitewide discount on all our products during the eight days of the Black Friday Sale. While we’re already offering 50% off on our annual subscription, learners can avail additional 20% off on the Whizlabs Annual Subscription. So, go ahead and make the most of this opportunity.”

He also added, “The Whizlabs Black Friday Sale 2020 will not be all about discounts on online training courses and practice tests. You can have lots of fun with our social media quiz, WhizQuiz, and other contests to test your competitiveness with zeal. I hope this year’s Black Friday Sale brings you a lot of joy and value in learning.”

Whizlabs Packs Up New Offerings in Black Friday Sale 2020

Whizlabs started offering its Black Friday Sale in 2017 and has continued for every year as a much-awaited event. The biggest proposition of this event is a facility of 50% sitewide discount on all Whizlabs products i.e. training courses and practice tests. Whizlabs has also introduced an additional 20% discount on its Annual Subscription Plan during the Black Friday Sale. So, Whizlabs customers can get a profitable deal on the already 50% discounted Annual Subscription Plan.

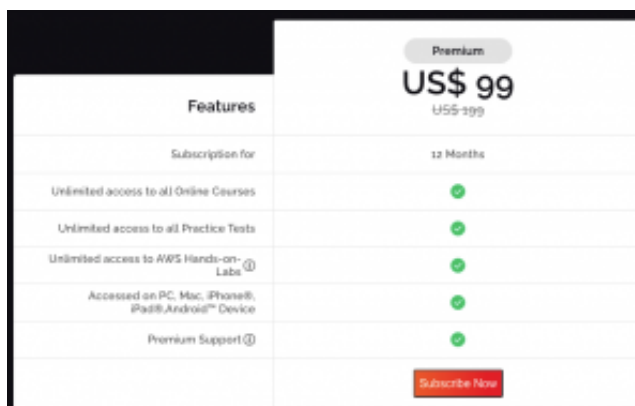

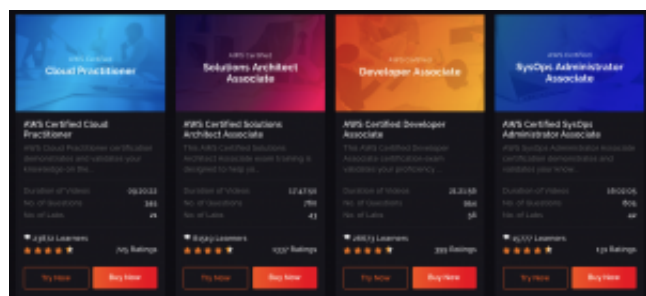

Whizlabs Black Friday Sale will also bring the Social Media Quiz event of Whizlabs, also known as WhizQuiz. Participants can use the WhizQuiz event for winning free courses and other rewards by answering simple questions. The WhizQuiz event would continue for eight days during the Black Friday Sale. Whizlabs would announce one winner and one runner-up everyday in the results of the WhizQuiz event. Regular participation in the WhizQuiz event on all social media channels can increase the chances of winning.

The Whizlabs Black Friday Sale 2020 also brings some interesting contests to keep the tech-savvy customers engaged during the event. The two new contests for this year's Black Friday Sale on Whizlabs are 'Retweet and Win' and 'Share and Win.' Whizlabs has announced Amazon voucher and free Whizlabs training courses respectively as prizes for these contests.
