

World Record Breaker, Olympic Swim Coach and Hall of Famer Joins SportsEdTV

Jonty Skinner, performance science expert will contribute to SportsEdTV athlete and coaching communities.

Miami, Nov 26, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - SportsEdTV has named Jonty Skinner, one of sports' leading performance experts to its array of senior contributors. His focus is on how the brain impacts human performance.

“Throughout his career as a coach, Jonty Skinner has been a leader in the use of performance science in day-to-day training and has been instrumental in defining how science is delivered to the coaching population which will be of great interest to our athletes, coaches and parents,” said Robert Mazzucchelli, Founder and Chairman SportsEdTV.

Jonty Skinner has been involved in the sport of swimming for over forty-five years. He is a member of the International Swimming Hall of Fame, and a member of the American Swimming Coaches Hall of Fame.

“He capped an illustrious swimming career by breaking the World 100 meters freestyle record by over half a second and held it for five years. In his swimming career he is credited with holding both the 50 and 100-meter world records in swimming,” added Victor Bergonzoli CEO SportsEdTV.

At the 1996 Olympic Games, his swimmers won 9 Gold Medals and his best swimmer won four Gold Medals. In his career, his athletes won seventeen Gold Medals, and twenty-three overall medals in Olympic competition.

In 2000, he stepped back from poolside, taking on the role of Director of Sports Performance and Technology at USA Swimming

About SportsEdTV: SportsEdTV exists to help athletes, coaches and parents LEARN, WIN and CELEBRATE. We don't expect everyone who uses our learning tools to become a world champion - that's not our mission.

We do expect people who use our educational resources to become their own champion, by whatever definition they view success in their chosen sport. For some, success is making the varsity team, for others, it's becoming country champion, and for others still, it may simply be gaining proficiency at a sport that offers a lifetime of fun and fitness.

To us, no matter your aspirations in sport, if you are striving to improve, you are winning! As a leading sports education media company, we provide FREE video and blog content to anyone in the world with an internet connection.

We also offer a global online community, where athletes, parents and coaches can interact, connect, chat, share content and find new friends. SportsEdTV videos feature coaching from world-class coaches and athletes - many of whom are or have coached world-champions - and have been watched by viewers in every country in the world.
