

a1qa is among industry leaders according to Clutch

An independent research platform has published an annual list of the leading B2B service providers with a1qa amid others.

Lakewood, Dec 14, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - A reputable industry source conducts in-depth research on the game-changing service vendors possessing the relevant expertise and tools required to tackle projects of any scale and focus.

The exclusive selection methodology includes the analysis of the parameters like unbiased company's clients reviews, the volume of services offered, brand reputation, and more. The final list unites 1,000 companies, among which a1qa is delighted to be present for the second year in a row.

Being a pure-play vendor that provides a full range of QA services from test automation to consulting, a1qa helps organizations attain expected business outcomes through leveraging high-performance software solutions.

Dmitry Tishchenko, CMO at a1qa, gives comments on this occasion:

"We express our gratitude for the high recognition of achievements in the field of quality assurance. A reliable QA vendor assists in implementing turnkey working solutions able to curtail delivery time, avert post hoc expensive defect fixing, and increase an overall customer satisfaction level. Therefore, a1qa continues advancing its approaches to help businesses outperform competitors or enter new markets with ease."
