Montefiore Medical Group (MMG) has been providing exceptional healthcare services to families since 1947. Both the primary care doctors and world-renowned specialists treat the unique needs of children and adults at more than 20 convenient locations throughout the Bronx and Westchester County. Castle Hill Family Practice in The Bronx, New York offers a collaborative asthma and diabetes program to help patients learn to manage their conditions, and on-site HIV testing and counseling.

Burke Rehabilitation Hospital is a non-profit, 150-bed acute rehabilitation hospital located in White Plains, New York. It is the only hospital in Westchester County entirely dedicated to rehabilitation medicine. Its mission is "To provide the highest quality medical care and rehabilitation services to ensure that each patient achieves the maximum functional recovery from illness, injury or disability."

Back in 1991, Dr. Smith graduated with her medical degree from the Ross University School of Medicine. She then went on to perform her residency in family medicine at Erie County Medical Center in Buffalo, New York.

With over three decades of experience in her field, she is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

On a more personal note, Dr. Smith speaks both English and Spanish.
