

DHI announces year-end sale on hair transplantation treatment; offers FLAT 50% off on consultation fee in Delhi

Delhi, Dec 11, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - DHI, the world's largest chain of hair restoration clinics announces a heavy discount of FLAT 50% off on the consultation fee on booking online. By unveiling this offer, the clinic aims to make hair restoration treatments accessible, affordable, and one of the most preferred treatments among hair loss solutions.

Due to lifestyle changes, experiencing baldness and hair thinning has become extremely common among the masses. Losing natural hair impacts an individual's way of living and lowers down their confidence. Since the world has radically moved towards technology, permanent hair restoration treatments have become widely popular in Delhi. In this fast-paced life, people seek professional consultation for hair transplantation for a quick and long-lasting solution.

Commenting on the offer, Dr Viral Desai (Pioneer, Medical Director & Co-founder DHI India) of DHI clinic said, “Undergoing a hair transplantation treatment is a critical decision to make. It involves both emotional as well as the financial strength to opt for the treatment. However, many sufferers hesitate to reach out to a good clinic to get the right consultation about their condition and treatment. We believe that our year-end sale will definitely be going to aid them in making a quick appointment and informed decisions.”

“Coming up with such offers represents the value that we want to provide to our potential customers. It is in complete sync with our aim to innovate and deliver the best solutions in hair restoration around the world,” he/ she added.
