Early start - Early finish formula for UPSC Civil Service Aspirants

Every year, India's Central Recruiting Agency i.e. Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) conducts various examinations including the Civil Services Examination for appointment of officers into Group A and Group B services. This Civil Services Examination is conducted for 24 All India Services and Central Government Civil Services comprising the prestigious Indian Administrative Services (IAS), Indian Foreign Services (IFS), Indian Police Services (IPS). The selection process consists of three stages- the Preliminary examination (objective in nature) , the Main examination(Subjective in nature) and the Personality Test or Interview.

In the civil services examination, a candidate's knowledge is tested on myriad range of subjects, viz, History, Geography, Polity, Economy, General Science, Science & Technology, and Ethics etc. These all subjects together combine to form General Studies as a core discipline & therefore the maximum weightage in the Civil Services Examination is allotted to General Studies.

Winners begins Early

The Students who start early preparation during their College days are eventually reaching to their desired goal on time, as they develop better understanding of subjects, comprehensive coverage of the syllabus and hone their writing skills as per the UPSC'S demand.

Success Stories of Early Beginners

There are various successful candidates as empirical evidences who started their preparation during college days & due to their edge in General studies achieved high accolades like RACHIT RAJ AIR-3, TINA DABI AIR-1, SRUSHTI JAYANT DSHMUKH AIR-5, and many more students are in this league. All these successful candidates were students of KSG India's Advance Foundation Course

The core focus is on developing the quintessential Answer writing Skills in a phased manner so that aspirants can anchor their thoughts to the examiner successfully.

There is a proper assessment channel of the students through periodic objective and Subjective tests coupled with a regular performance chart for better analysis.

Individual Mentoring Program

Last but not the least, The Individual Mentoring program helps in the knowledge engineering of the aspirants and takes them closer towards their intended goal to crack the prestigious Civil Services Examination.

Online Learning for UPSC Civil Service Exam

In times of uncertainty and ambivalence, a civil services aspirant needs to be adaptive in learning tactfully and judiciously. The KSG India's online Learning program (KOL) (www.ksgindia.com/kol) is designed to provide aspirants important armor in their battle of civil services Examination. It is an effective, engaging, and efficient learning system where learning does not transpire at a predetermined time and place but is flexible temporally and spatially without diluting the qualitative content. KSG India's Advance Foundation Course is serving students in both formats i.e. Offline as well as Online.

In 2020 over 10 lakh candidates applied for 796 vacancies in the Civil Services Examination. UPSC usually takes some 12 to 13 times candidates from prelims to mains against the final vacancy and based on this parameter this year they took 10564 candidates from the prelims to write mains. In the stage of the personality test, this ratio comes down to 3 times against the final vacancy. However, UPSC may change the number of vacancies as per their requirement
