

Enjoy The Groove and Lamentation with Big Caz's Latest Tribute Single 'Real 1 In The Sky'

Hailing from Los Angeles, Big Caz is enriching the hip hop industry with his latest single 'Real 1 in the Sky'. It is tribute to legendary rapper Nipsey Hussle.

Los Angeles, Dec 15, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Brilliant production and deep emotional verses unite in Big Caz's latest single named 'Real 1 in the Sky'. Collaborating with K.P, this track churns out the essence of hip hop with a perfect blend of familiarity and freshness. The track starts with a motivational speech and slowly progresses with the soft RnB like grooves and strong verses. The eclectic deliverance of the artist doesn't fail to evoke the emotions of the listeners. The sole purpose behind making this track was to pay a tribute to the legendary rapper Nipsey Hussle. The artist has been known for his help to push Nipsey's career in the earlier phase by getting him placed in DR. Dre's tribute album "A Chronic Tribute to Dr. Dre". Another tribute album was made in the honor of 2pac names "Pac's life".

Guillermo Eiland, also known as Big Caz, is one of the pioneers who took the hip hop industry forward with his amazing tracks. He is a versatile musician, actor, recording artist, and the CEO of Mo Thugs Records as well. He is not only musically enriched but also focused on his film career as he produced and starred in the films like "The Life of a 1% percent" to inspire others.

The latest track 'Real 1 in the Sky' reflects his prolific musicianship with a hidden message against gun violence. Deeply moved by Nipsey's death and witnessing his share of gun violence, the artist is trying to spread awareness through music.
