Those questions are extremely relevant to success in marketing and customer retention. That’s the problem we solve for start-up businesses. Your Brand Appeal is crucial. Customers decide in seconds whether they like the Brand name or not before deciding to probe further about the Product and Services” – as discussed by BigDad’s Jenny Garner, a brand and domain specialist.

BigDad helps businesses to compete with other brands through online presence with reasonable price offers ranging from US$880 and could be higher than US$3000.
