

FAIF shares new single and video to "DWN 2NITE FREESTYLE."

Frankfort, Dec 20, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Kentucky based Hip Hop/R&B Artist/Songwriter FAIF presents his fifth video/single, DWN 2NITE FREESTYLE recently released on all major music streaming platforms and directed by FAIF himself.

With seductive lyrics like 'Can I get a little bit of time; Baby can I pour you a Lil wine; Baby let's just bump and grind; Baby tell me what's your sign; Imma get you in this bedroom and fk your mind,' "DWN 2NITE FREESTYLE" is sure to be a fan-favorite especially among the ladies this winter season.

Since FAIF is not your typical Artist, he continues to set no boundaries to his videos which depict the 'face' of what FAIF is all about. FAIF strives for each video to be different while showcasing his Scorpio side as much as possible! Cultivating Perceptions video treatment on this video is certainly different than FAIF'S previous single 'FALLEN TEARS.'

This emerging artist is being called charming, stimulating, authentic, and captivating on America's R&B Scene. Not only does FAIF engage and illuminate the audience within minutes with his voice, but also his stage presence.

He has sung for BET, walking away as a winner in The Tales on BET Showcase, selected by Murder Inc's Irv Gotti himself. FAIF performed at The First Annual Juneteenth Celebration held in Louisville, Kentucky which was a monumental showcase to be a part of with the current situation America is facing. He's scheduled to headline The Livestarr Music Festival in North Carolina, March 2021. FAIF has also been featured in newspapers and entertainment magazines.

We cannot wait to see what else FAIF has in store for his next release. With throwback feels like this, we can only expect it to be mind-blowing and the very best.

FAIF has also opened the stage for many numerous acts, including Roddy Ricch, Rod Wave, Da Baby, Lil Keed, and many others.
