Elegant Drapery Packages with Custom Window Treatments:

Color: You need to make sure if you want the color of the curtains to mix with the décor to create a new kind of aesthetic appeal. For a perfect fusion, choose the curtains that have the same color tone as the wall. Or you may also buy luxury designer curtains with a non-dominant subtle color.

Prints & Pattern: A golden rule for choosing chic window treatments: If you have patterned furniture, you should prioritize the solid curtains. Whether you are looking for luxury drapes for bedrooms or elegant window treatments for the dining room, Galaxy Designs is the right place to find hand-made custom curtains and drapes crafted from luxury fabrics in different styles.

Fabric: Fabric is an important thing to consider while choosing curtains for your home, as the fabric material sets the tone for your home décor. The truth is that every room has a different architectural appeal—you should never restrict your options to a single curtain design & color theme for your home.

Galaxy Designs helps you find custom luxury curtains with valance in different designs and colors. Whether you need to dress up the windows of the living room, dining room, bedroom, guest room, kid's bedroom, or other areas of your home, this is the right place you should visit and explore the possibilities.

In addition to the custom drapes and curtains, Galaxy Designs does also have a range of functional drapery hardware in different designs. Hand-painted Captivating Drapery Hardware has been crafted in the USA to add attractions to the entire window treatments.

The Team of Galaxy Designs:

The team includes experienced professional designers who can help you find the best window treatment option that suits your preferences. The team also includes knowledgeable customer care specialists who are ready to guide you through the entire procedure.
