We got to talk to Dr. Richard Rolle about how he performs emergency tooth extraction, he said, “For emergency tooth extraction, the first thing that I focus on is how to relieve the patient of the pain and discomfort. It is most likely that they are feeling too much pain and that is why they need to get their impacted tooth extracted. At Rolle Oral and Facial Surgery, we ensure that you get to know about all your options during the consultation phase. We also offer local anesthesia or complete sedation for ensuring comfort and relieving anxiety during their surgery.” So, if and when you are searching for tooth extraction near me, you know where you should go.
