

Instrumental genius Danni Boi drops his debut EP Game Change consisting of seven mesmerizing guitar solos

Gifted artist Danni Boi uplifts the spirit of the audience with his versatile melodic collection featuring dynamic solo guitar riffs in his debut EP Game Change.

Philadelphia, Dec 14, 2020 (IssueWire.com) - Well-seasoned musician in the neo-soul genre Danni Boi is ready to grace the world with his exceptional guitar riffs through his newly released masterpiece collection. The EP named Game Change guides the audience to thematic nirvana with its seven spectacular instrumental bangers. Released on December 4, 2020, the EP has already garnered a high amount of audience engagement around the global music community. Each song is an acoustic folk/blues guitar solo work of art without the distraction of any other rhythmic or lyrical display. The successive production of the notes of a chord in the songs gives the tracks an ethereal vibe that is extremely rare in the contemporary music industry.

Inspired by the pure melodic bliss of the genres like soul, blues, and jazz, the brilliant artist developed a knack for encapsulating their thematic elements in his purely original soundscape. Utilizing his hard-earned musical talents and understandings, the prolific musician tries to express his thoughts and emotions through the means of music. Without any use of words or any kind of other instruments besides guitar, the talented artist has no difficulty conveying his heartfelt message to his audience. The breathtaking guitar solos in his recently released EP mark his instrumental dexterity as well as his unbound creative clarity. Every track in the EP is highly expressive and penetrates the minds of the audience generating strong emotions in them effortlessly.

Driven by his genuine love and passion for the art of music-making, Danni Boi has taken the responsibility to give the audience a much-deserved break from the monotony of contemporary music with his fresh new wave of rich instrumental pieces. His recent EP Game Change offers a highly melodic acoustic guitar strumming, soulful arpeggios, uplifting riffs, and astonishing crescendos. The opening track 'Stylin' prepares the listeners for the rest with its reverberated guitar flow. The other tracks such as 'Caballero', 'Lockdown', 'Touchstones', 'Psychedelic', and the others exude an equal amount of rhythmic dexterity through their captivating resonance that separates him from the other contemporary musicians. The EP is available on all major music streaming platforms; stay tuned for his upcoming projects.
