Eastside Dermatology is a preferred provider of dermatology where uncompromising care of patients is the highest mission. The providers pledge to provide warm, professional, and expert medical care and services, with offices in Grosse Pointe Woods and Chesterfield, Michigan.

Recognized as one of the Consumer's Guide Top Doctors in the metropolitan Detroit area, Dr. Manz-Dulac provides excellent patient care. She promotes skin health and well-being through the use of proven treatments, protocols, and products.

In her professional experience, she is affiliated with Ascension St. John Hospital, Beaumont Hospital, Trenton, McLaren Macomb, and Detroit Medical Center.

Dr. Manz-Dulac earned her medical degree from SUNY Upstate Medical University in 1987. She completed her residency in dermatology at Henry Ford Hospital in 1991.

A Fellow of the American Academy of Dermatology (FAAD), she is board-certified in dermatology by the American Board of Dermatology (ABD). The ABD is a voluntary, non-profit, private, autonomous organization formed for the primary purpose of protecting the public interest by establishing and maintaining high standards of training, education, and qualifications of physicians rendering care in dermatology.

Dermatology is the specialty of medicine dealing with the medical and surgical aspects of the skin, the largest organ of the body. A dermatologist is a specialist doctor who manages the internal and external causes of skin disease and cosmetic concerns involving the skin. Dermatological duties include doing consultations, providing screening tests, and undertaking minor surgical procedures.

Outside of the office, Dr. Manz-Dulac enjoys running, swimming, skiing, snowshoeing, riding her ElliptiGO, hiking, and traveling.
