New York City, Dec 1, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Leon is a board-certified family physician in practice with Kaiser Permanente Riverside Medical Center in California.

Founded in 1945, Kaiser Permanente is recognized as one of America's leading health care providers and not-for-profit health plans. It currently serves 12.4 million members in 8 states and the District of Columbia. Care for members and patients is focused on their total health and guided by their personal Permanente Medical Group physicians, specialists, and team of caregivers.

The mission of Kaiser Permanente is "to provide high-quality, affordable health care services and to improve the health of our members and the communities we serve."

Back in 1998, Dr. Leon graduated with her Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from the College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific - Western University of Health Sciences. She then went on to serve her internship and residency in family medicine at San Joaquin General Hospital.

Licensed to practice medicine in California and North Dakota, she is board-certified in family medicine by the American Osteopathic Board of Family Physicians (AOBFP). The AOBFP is an organization that provides board certification to qualified osteopathic physicians who specialize in delivering comprehensive primary care for patients of all ages, genders, and addressing all parts of the body.

Among her professional affiliations, Dr. Leon is a member of the American Academy of Family Physicians, the American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians, the American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians of California, and the American Osteopathic Association. She attributes her success to her dedication, compassion, and clinical expertise.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

Outside of the office, Dr. Leon enjoys collecting antiques and walking. Her favorite places to vacation are in Hawaii and Florida, and she enjoys taking cruises.
