Dairy foods are milk products containing the milk of mammals such as cows. Dairy products such as instant fat-filled milk powder, UHT milk, butter, and others are healthy foods considered rich in nutrients as they serve a good amount of calcium, vitamin Ds and other important nutrients. It is suggested for most people to have two to three cups of milk or milk foods every day. Dairy foods also deliver crucial elements such as phosphorus, potassium, magnesium, and vitamins A, B12, and riboflavin. There are many dietary experts that believe that the consumption of dairy foods is linked to an array of health benefits such as the reduced risk of heart disease, stroke, hypertension, type 2 diabetes, metabolic syndrome, and colorectal cancer.

Mina Mina is one of the leading milk brands around the world that provides a range of nutritious dairy products.
