The graphic features a vibrant blue and purple gradient background with a dotted pattern. On the right side, there is a cluster of circular icons connected by lines, representing various business and financial concepts like a smartphone, a wallet, a shopping cart, a bar chart, a document, and a person. A central icon shows a person at a computer. The overall theme is digital business and technology.

Seattle, Dec 3, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Parallel Character Ecology version 1.0 will be launched vigorously on Dec 5. The launch of ecology version 1.0 will initially connect various ecological business sections and integrate the major business sections in the ecological closed-loop, and realize the resource sharing, user sharing and information sharing to make the business sections closely related and support each other, and create a brand-new business ecology!

In Parallel Character, a user account can be universally used in all ecological business sections and can enjoy all services of ecological business sections. After the launch of ecology version 1.0, users can click the building of DeFi in the main scene of Parallel Character to jump to the download page of DeFi. DeFi can satisfy the needs of the majority of users to use the peer-to-peer network system to realize the real-time transfer, remittance and other financial transactions from personal accounts to personal accounts.

And you can click the building of ParChar Pay in the main scene to jump to the exclusive QR code interface where ParChar Pay invites merchants to settle in, users can enjoy plenty of rewards by inviting offline merchants to settle in through the exclusive QR code; and you can click the building of Local Life to enter the Local Life version 1.0.0 (stage 1) which has completed the interface display of homepage, merchants detail page and products detail page, etc.

In addition to the above ecological business sections, clicking on the building of Parallel World in the main scene can enable users to conduct immersive consumption, entertainment, shopping, financial management, learning and interaction in the virtual world; and clicking on the building of EChain International Mall can meet the needs of users to buy all kinds of products around the globe without leaving home based on free tax and postage, and also enjoy the dividends from merchants; clicking on the building of Aries Token Asset Exchange can meet the users' demand for the trading of commodity token.

After the launch of [?]Parallel Character[?]Ecology version 1.0, the various independent ecological business sections will be initially connected to build a brand-new business ecology in the realm of tokenomics! In the future, parallel characters will be a big commercial ecology of tokenomics, integrating more ecological business sections, and turning the ecological island of the tokenomics into a real closed-loop economy.
