

Skylines One LLC enters partnership with myFitment LLC

On 1st of July 2020, Skylines One LLC is officially kick-starting its partnership with myFitment, LLC

Dover, Dec 19, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - myFitment in partnership with Skylines One is developing an innovative app that enables automotive and powersports part sellers to enable their stores as an app on their customers' mobile devices.

Customers of the new myFitment Select Mobile app will receive branded iOS and Android apps through which their customers can engage with their inventory through a simple to use vehicle lookup. Parts buyers have the opportunity to receive targeted notifications of new products for the vehicles in their Garage. With engineers that have a combined experience of 30+ years with major IT players like Apple Inc., Dell and Quest, Skylines One is honored to be the partner of choice for this grand initiative!

About Skylines One, LLC

Skylines One is a cloud-first software company focusing on improving your business processes with the use of cutting edge technologies — moving the needle that bit further for you. The company's name resembles its tradition of using cloud-first technology combined with the very best lines of code - Skylines One (<https://skylines.one/>)

Skylines One was founded by Alex Mittler and Lars Artmann in June, 2020. Alex Mittler and Lars Artmann met at a deep-tech conference and very quickly decided that they want to start a software company to make use of their vast knowledge in the latest technology stacks. With its team of ex-Apple engineers, Skylines One offers a timely, qualitative, and affordable custom development service.

About myFitment, LLC

myFitment was founded in 2013 to help online parts and accessories sellers comply with the complex data standards that are necessary to do business in today's automotive and powersports parts and accessories aftermarket. Their powerful, intuitive solutions help sellers drive sales and avoid costly returns. myFitment (<https://myfitment.com>) has helped thousands of sellers provide fitment for platforms such as eBay, Amazon, NewEgg, AutoZone, Wal-Mart, and many more.
