

YSJ Apparel to Continue Operations Within Ontario During Shutdown, Will Limit Operations to North America

Ontario-based apparel brand meets criteria of essential business in Ontario, will also cease operations outside of North America until March 20, 2021

Niagara Region, Dec 22, 2020 (Issuewire.com) - Ontario-based premium apparel and accessories brand YSJ Apparel today announced that they have once again met the criteria of an essential business in Canada and will continue to accept and fulfill all orders placed from within the province of Ontario.

This announcement comes after official statements from the Ontario Government that the province will be placed under a provincewide shutdown, beginning on Dec. 26, 2020. During this lockdown, only businesses which have met the criteria for being essential may stay open.

The brand also announced that beginning Dec. 26, 2020, they will stop accepting orders placed from outside North America, until March 20, 2021, due to concerns relating to the Covid-19 Pandemic. Orders placed from within Canada, Mexico, or the United States will continue to be accepted throughout the Ontario shutdown, but customers outside of these countries will not be able to place orders on their Site.

Upon re-evaluation on March 20, 2021, YSJ Apparel may again begin accepting orders from outside North America, but has stated that this will depend on a variety of factors, including recommendations from the Ontario Government and the Federal Government of Canada, the World Health Organization, and their own evaluations.
