The collaboration that Hypa Cee has made with Duncan Mighty for his current single has been the best option in his latest single, Amarachi. Not only that his works made the 9ja artist a household name for music lovers, but also made the listeners aware of the use of a good mixture in the igbo cultural acoustic instruments. No wonder that the single has already made a mark among the close circuit listeners, but also that it has been a Dream Come through for the artist as well. His musical career and its current progress are showing that a star is now born in Toronto from the soils of Africa.
