

Celebrate Valentine's Day at the Twisted Vine Restaurant in Derby, CT

Shelton, Jan 7, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Twisted Vine Restaurant is set to have a free event for Valentine's Day, Sunday, February 14, 2021. This free event is for those couples who would like to renew their vows and for those who want to make Valentine's day their day to be married.

Twisted Vine Restaurant opened in the latter part of July 2005. This historic landmark, built-in 1892 was originally the Old Birmingham National Bank, still maintains the original vault from the bank in the main dining room. The Twisted Vine is always available to host your next special event. Whether it's a rehearsal dinner, bridal shower, christening, retirement, or any other special occasion and this year, Twisted Vine is hosting their first Valentine's Day vow renewal and wedding ceremony event.

Twisted Vine will provide everything needed. Debra LaMotta will be your Justice of the Peace, www.debractjp.com, a photographer, and a champagne toast. Reservations are required.

A few words from the owner of Twisted Vine, Michael Picone - The Twisted Vine Restaurant, the most romantic spot in town, is the perfect place to celebrate Valentine's Day with your special loved one and your entire family!

Debra LaMotta, Justice of the Peace, will be performing the ceremonies. Debra has been a Justice of the Peace for the past eight years. Pre-registration is required and for the wedding ceremony a Marriage License must be obtained from the Derby's Town Clerk's Office, 203.736.1462. Pre-register by emailing Debra at debra@debractjp.com. Please indicate either Wedding Ceremony or Vow Renewal. The ceremony will take place at 7 pm. Photos provided by A. Dupree. Reservations for dinner are required.

The ceremony is free but photographs and dinner must be purchased separately.

Contact Twisted Vine Restaurant for dinner reservations at 203.734.2462 located at 285 Main St. Derby, CT 06418. The staff at Twisted Vine is looking forward to making your Valentine's extra special. Contact Debra LaMotta at 203.445.3240 or email debra@debractjp.com, see details at www.debractjp.com.

Media Contact

Debra LaMotta, Justice of the Peace

debra@debractjp.com

2034453240

Source : Debra LaMotta, Justice of the Peace

See on IssueWire