

Covid-19 Crushes Economy; Employment Webinars Offer Hope

Leadership development expert and awarding author, Dr. Daryl D. Green, will offer employment webinars to assist individuals as well as small businesses in 2021.

Tennessee, Knoxville, Jan 26, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Do you know what the future holds in 2021? Pandemic fatigue is all around us. The coronavirus has damaged the economy across the globe – the United States is no exception. More than 22 million U.S. workers have filed for unemployment. Workers wait until the next rounds of layoffs. Leadership development expert and awarding author, Dr. Daryl D. Green, will offer employment webinars to assist individuals as well as small businesses in 2021.

On January 29th, starting at 6:00 pm (CST), Dr. Green will provide two featured webinars: Employment Trends: Game Changing Predictions for 2021 and Market Trends: 50+ Home-based Businesses to Start on a Limited Budget. These free webinars are sponsored by the St. John Missionary Baptist Church in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The objectives of these seminars are to provide current employment information. They will be streamed on the church's Facebook Page (www.facebook.com/stjohnokc). For more information, please contact Ms. Debra Johnson at dljohnson@stjohnokc.org, 405-478-3344.

The webinar leader explains, “We live in a disruptive world. Our institutions are failing us. Our government can’t save up. To address the economic problems, we need local communities to work together. There is hope. St. John Missionary Baptist Church is a linchpin in Oklahoma City. The church embraced this employment need. Through social media, we plan to reach larger demographics. These webinars provide a good insight into employment trends are current. We will be offering practical solutions. I want to help individuals feel empowered. These seminars are a great start.”
