

Dgunnabeatz Offers An Amazing Platform For Emerging Musicians With His Music Studio Plug Studios NYC

New York, New York City, Jan 30, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Established musician and renowned recording studio owner David Cabrera, mostly known as DGunnaBeatz, has become highly popular with his album 'Artist' with fellow artist A Boogie Wit Da Hoodie. Produced entirely from the basement of his parents' house, it was labeled with 1 x Platinum certification hitting a sale of 1 million certified units. The tracks in the album created a huge sensation in the mainstream music industry. The album is very special to his heart as it deals with his real thoughts and emotions.

DGunnaBeatz developed a keen interest in the art of music-making. Soon he started experimenting with diverse musical forms and styles to find his ideal sound. At the tender age of 12, he started crafting beats and recording songs with friends. This has made him highly experienced in the musical field. Armed with his extraordinary musical insights and singing techniques, he has been offering incredible melodic bangers to the audience.

Over time as he progressed, he established an amazing platform to grow in his musical career. He founded a recording studio named Plug Studios NYC. And the most amazing thing is that all of this started in his basement. Next, he created his most popular and critically acclaimed single 'Still Think About You' under his recording studio. The song is now at 2x Platinum in the music industry. Released with Highbridge/ Atlantic Records on February 14th, 2016, his hit album 'Artist' acquired Gold certification in 2018, and now it is labeled with 1 x Platinum certification with 1 million sales of its certified units.

DGunnaBeatz's music studio, Plug Studios NYC was formed in 2015. It has worked with famous artists like Cardi B, Anuel AA, Lil TJay, Natti Natasha, and many more. The artist inspires the people, who are working from their homes with his motto that anyone can create anything from anywhere. The studio is helping rising artists to establish their musical careers by offering the best sound quality and services in NYC. For more details, visit them at www.PlugStudiosNYC.Com.
