

Distinctive Living Offers a Boutique, Caring, People-Centered Approach to Senior Community Management

The newly launched boutique senior community management provider leverages decades of industry experience to deliver high-quality living and care experiences to residents.

Florida, Orlando, Jan 24, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - A new boutique senior living management provider based in Pennsylvania has opened its doors and is poised to deliver its innovative approaches to assisted living and memory care to communities across the country.

Distinctive Living, partners with independent living, assisted living, and memory care community owners and investment groups, offering skilled management of their new or existing communities. Leveraging decades of industry experience, the group ensures that those living in and utilizing the services of its managed communities receive the highly-skilled, compassionate care they deserve while also helping ensure that the companies owning and investing in those communities are successful.

The Distinctive Living team focuses on taking a hospitality-driven approach to delivering care in the communities it manages. By taking a holistic approach to senior care and focusing on five dimensions of wellbeing through its site programming, the Distinctive Learning team ensures each residents' unique needs are met and that they can thrive. This approach includes opportunities for learning, making connections, and spiritual enhancement as well as delivering luxurious dining experiences for residents that support their unique nutritional needs.

Distinctive Living's highly skilled staff also offers innovative dementia care in its memory communities. By employing cutting-edge, research-based strategies into its care plans for dementia patients, the Distinctive Living team celebrates each resident and their unique pasts and memories while assisting them in building new memories and experiences in a safe and caring environment.

With decades of collective senior housing expertise, the Distinctive Living leadership team and staff are poised to partner with senior living community investors and community owners in several ways, including:

- Third-party management services
- Turnaround operations
- Community acquisition
- New development and lease-up communities
- Locating and creating investor partnerships

"Distinctive Living is uniquely poised to not only serve the needs of senior living community investors but also those of the residents who live in those communities," said George Draghiceanu, Chief Development Officer. "Our deep expertise spans the breadth of the senior living community sector, from assisting owners and investors with conceiving of, funding, and operating new or existing facilities to implementing and managing exceptional care and lifestyle programming for facility residents. We look forward to helping our partners create new benchmarks of care that set the gold standard in senior living."
