Randall Scott Kuhlmann, MD, Ph.D. a Maternal-Fetal Medicine Specialist with ProHealth Waukesha Memorial Hospital & ProHealth Oconomowoc Memorial Hospital

New York City, Jan 5, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Being a respected Maternal-Fetal Medicine specialist, Dr. Kuhlmann's areas of expertise include high-risk pregnancy, prenatal diagnosis, prenatal ultrasound, fetal medicine, and clotting disorders in pregnancy. He is involved with the Maternal-Fetal Medicine Services at ProHealth Waukesha Memorial Hospital & ProHealth Oconomowoc Memorial Hospital.

"It is my goal to provide the best possible care for my patients. Maternal-fetal medicine is about more than administering medical diagnosis and treatment - it is also about a collaborative process to provide the highest quality care for every woman and fetus who has special medical needs during pregnancy” expressed the doctor.

For more than a century, ProHealth Care has been the health care leader in Waukesha County, Wisconsin, and surrounding areas – providing outstanding care across a full spectrum of services. The providers strive to continuously improve the community’s health and well-being by combining skill, compassion, and innovation.

Back in 1984, Dr. Kuhlmann graduated with his medical degree from the Medical College of Wisconsin following a Ph.D. in Anatomy with a research emphasis in embryology and teratology from the Medical College of Wisconsin in 1981. He then went on to perform his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at the Eastern Virginia Graduate School of Medicine and fellowship in Maternal-Fetal Medicine at the Eastern Virginia Medical School of the Medical College of Hampton Roads.

A Fellow of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, he is board-certified in obstetrics and gynecology & maternal-fetal medicine by the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology (ABOG). The mission of the ABOG is to define standards, certify obstetricians and gynecologists, and facilitate continuous learning to advance knowledge, practice, and professionalism in women’s health.

Maternal-fetal medicine, also known as perinatology, is a branch of medicine that focuses on managing health concerns of the mother and fetus prior to, during, and shortly after pregnancy. Maternal-fetal medicine specialists are physicians who subspecialize within the field of obstetrics. They help take care of women having complicated or high-risk pregnancies.

Married with two children and three grandchildren. Dr. Kuhlmann enjoys golfing in his spare time.
