About Denaron;

Denaron is a Houston, TX-based artist known for his passionate, honest, and open-minded music. Denaron's music fit perfectly amongst artists such as Musiq Soulchild, Joe, and John Legend as huge; it can be described as a gentlemen's playlist; a man that knows how to treat a woman in and out of the bedroom, with respect and knows her treatment does not differ in public or when she's vulnerable, at her sexiest.

Denaron's lyrics captivate his audiences because he allows people's real-life situations to inspire his writing and as well as his musical melodic ranges. According to Denaron, Love and its relationship with life inspire him to write and sing about real love, sex, and heartbreak. These are lessons learned personally and indirectly from as young as the age of 12.

Denaron began his musical career at a young age and in the church. Growing up, he won first place in numerous talent shows locally to traveling and winning competitions across the country. Denaron began building his brand as an artist recording original songs and covers from legends that influenced him greatly; legends such as Luther Vandross David Ruffin and Ronald Isley. He was able to build a following and eventually gaining opportunities to open for Wale, Dwele, and Ginuwine and working with JDawg from Swisha House, BeatKing, and others.

His first single "Body" featuring Brian Angel from Day 26 was released in 2015. His mixtape entitled LaLauxure was released in August 2017 and can be found on DatPiff. Currently, he is working on his album Debut due to release in the near future with the first single "Wild Out" featuring Young Dro.
