Udaipur, Jan 1, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Get ready to update your playlist with Jaybird's latest track "Jaane Na Dena"

The Official Music Video 'Jaane Na Dena' was released this new year's eve December 31, 2020. The music video spins around a depressed guy who's in immense pain and is lost, suffering from addiction. Being in such traumatic pain he becomes suicidal and a girl appears who helps him out with his life. We all feel burnt out at a certain point in time in our life where we express ourselves through these emotional tracks while staring plaintively out of our car's window.

And as people say 'Music makes you feel a feeling, lyrics make you feel a thought'. Jaybird's songs add so much enrichment to everyone's life and that's one of the many reasons people prefer to listen to his songs, as a remedy to regulate their emotions. Once in our lives, we all felt lost, on the verge of being addicted, where many of us figured ending our life was the best option out there. Jaybird speaks through his song that this is not the end, there is always hope, hope for a better life, hope for better opportunities, so have faith and something will eventually come to help you out.

Being so relatable and passionate, Jaybird has always been the audience's favorite.

People who've worked efficiently to make this project a big hit :

While we all enjoy the end results, it's always important to acknowledge the blood and sweat it took of the entire cast behind the project. The song would have never been such an amazing one without the hard work of the entire team.
