Encino, Jan 4, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - KeaWorld receives ISO 9001:2015 accreditation; over 200 KeaBabies products are now manufactured to ISO 9001 requirements.

KeaWorld Pte Ltd has recently been awarded the notable ISO 9001:2015 accreditation, an international standard dedicated to Quality Management Systems (QMS). This comes after the company has also obtained the Global Organic Textile Standards \(GOTS\) certification, an internationally recognized organic textile standard.

The ISO 9001:2015 accreditation for the company ensures product safety, as well as quality while encouraging innovation in an international marketplace. The GOTS certification serves to ensure the company practices, as well as product materials, are sourced in the most sustainable ways, from seed to sow, and finally to their end-users.

Recognizing KeaWorld's Accomplishments

To receive the ISO 9001:2015 accreditation is an important milestone, and the company was measured on its management systems, manufacturing processes, and their assurance to comply with regulatory requirements.

KeaWorld's ISO 9001:2015 certification (Cert No.: SG91113A) was awarded by LMS Certification Ltd, an internationally recognized management systems certification company.
