New York City, Jan 18, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - A caring and compassionate family physician & an Associate Professor of Family Medicine, Dr. Mina is in practice with The University of Toledo Medical Center. She sees patients at the Regency Medical Campus, providing patient-centered, primary medical care backed by expertise.

Since 1964, The University of Toledo Medical Center has been serving the health needs of the Toledo community. Established as a teaching hospital to train the future physicians and medical professionals of the greater Toledo region, UTMC remains dedicated to providing advanced care and healing in a patient-centered environment. With access to the latest clinical trials and medical research, the providers are committed to teaching the next generation of health-care professionals.

The mission of The University of Toledo Medical Center is to improve the human condition by providing patient-centered, university-quality care.

Academically, Dr. Mina graduated with her medical degree from the Faculty of Medicine, Cairo University in Egypt in 2003. She then went on to perform her residency in family medicine at The University of Toledo Medical Center/St. Luke's Hospital in 2013.

With over two decades of experience, she is board-certified in family medicine and bariatric medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.

In honor of her clinical expertise, Dr. Mina is the recipient of the On-Time Doctor Award (2015).
