Colorado, Golden, Jan 26, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Meritech, the leader in automated hygiene technology, sponsorship of the upcoming webinar “How the FDA is Integrating the Blueprint for Smarter Food Safety,” to take place on January 27th, 2021 at 2 pm EST. This webinar presented by Food Safety Magazine is ideal for food manufacturing professionals who wish to learn more about the role of domestic mutual reliance in the FDA’s blueprint for an integrated food safety system.

“We are excited to sponsor this webinar from Food Safety Magazine about the FDA’s New Era of Smarter Food Safety Blueprint,” says Alison Smith, Director of Strategic Accounts at Meritech. “Just as the FDA is encouraging the use of technology to ensure food safety, we encourage the use of automated hygiene technology. CleanTech® Automated Handwashing Stations help ensure food safety by removing more than 99.9% of pathogens from hands in just 12 seconds.”

Registrants can expect to learn more about what domestic mutual reliance looks like in practice, the benefits of these partnerships, and hear directly from state and national officials who have already experienced mutual reliance success.
