

New East Texas Country Artist Randy C Moore Releases “Lufkin” Album

Lufkin, TX- Award Winning Singer/Songwriter Randy C Moore is releasing his new album, “Lufkin” January 5, 2021 on Highway 59 Records TM.

Lufkin, Jan 3, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - “Lufkin” is produced by Randy C Moore with Norbert Putman, as an executive in charge of production. On the 10-song album, Moore collaborates on two tracks with hit-makers Jessie Hunter (BMG Records), and David Lee (Jose Armadillo Music), along with penning the other eight songs himself. Top tracks from the record are “Big in Texas”, the Moore/Lee composition and hit leadoff single, “Back In The Day” is the Moore/Hunter contribution with a simple social message, “Woman, Woman” an open-letter love song, “I Sold A Lot Of Beer” is the country-rocking so-long to Music City, “Old Grey Dog” pays tribute to our four-legged forever friends, “Daddy, I Wanna’ Go Fishing” is the timeless story of the Father and Son fishing buddies for life, “Stars In Their Eyes” is a simple wish for all of the singer/songwriters still trying to be somebody, “He’s Just A Cowboy” pays tribute to the dying breed of real everyday ranch hands and cowboys, “Day After Day” is a song about self-awareness, “Devil For Hire” is the timeless tale of the ruler of Hell and how it may have all just been a business deal to help out The Almighty’s Plan.

Randy C Moore is from Humble, Texas. His writing & recording career began at the age of 15. Randy was a staple of the Houston music scene. Playing weekly shows at world-famous Gilley’s in Pasadena, Texas, in addition to shows and dance halls in Dallas/ Ft. Worth, and Waco. Randy, made his way to Nashville sometime later and was featured as a guest artist on WSM’s Grand Ole Opry. He formed a friendship in the late '90s with his musical mentor and friend, Carl Perkins. Today, Randy Moore travels the world stage from Monaco to Shanghai, China, performing his music for a diverse audience of music fans.
