

The New Stars in the International Pop Scene Rumelis Twins Releases Their Debut Soundtrack 'Confused'

German-based pop musicians Rumelis Twins introduces their extraordinary singing capability merged with a brilliant melody in their first-ever song, 'Confused'.

Offenbach, Jan 30, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Pop music has witnessed a surge of new and refreshing talents in the last few years. Gifted musicians Ben and Noah have made a huge impression on the global pop community with their mesmerizing pop numbers. They are mostly known as Rumelis Twins to their fans. They have released their debut song called 'Confused' on popular streaming platforms that have been making rounds on the global pop community since it was released. The song is the perfect blend of compelling instrumental riffs and the artists' blissful vocal performance.

Hailing from a German town called Offenbach, the brothers have stepped into the musical scene at the age of 15. Armed with their unique storytelling and real singing skills, the gifted artists soon spread their musical greatness in Europe, Asia, and the USA. After years of hard work and dedication to the art, the twin brothers have found suitable producers to create their most anticipating number. With a guitar and piano, they have started their journey, and now they have gained a tremendous amount of success with their debut song.

Working with their production house Rumelis Records, the young and talented twins have released their debut single 'Confused', with the help of the producer duo Neal & Alex. Rumelis Twins showcased their incredible thematic talent in every verse of the song. The song leaves a very distinct after taste that is bound to remind the audience of the classic pop beats with a mix of contemporary resonance. Follow them on Spotify and Instagram to stay updated about their upcoming releases.

Listen to their creations on Spotify

now: <https://open.spotify.com/track/25sEYoQO1kfDSdYaX6DEqH>

Media Contact

The Tunes Club

info@thetunesclub.com

Source : Rumelis Twins

See on IssueWire