LGBT Matrimony app from make in india

Thane, Jan 2, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Umeed Matrimony Inc. launches the first matrimonial app in India for people in the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Community. The app named Umeed LGBT Matrimony App is now available in Google Playstore.

The purpose of this app is to help people looking for LGBT weddings to get together and explore potential relationships. It is not a dating app, but the purpose of this app is to help individuals in this community to find like-minded people.

Umeed Matrimony Inc. promotes this app. Of course, this company knows that gay marriages are still not legally approved in India. However, with the decriminalization of Section 377, the company believes that gay marriages in India will soon be legalized. They feel that this app is just the initial step in this direction in the country.

Even though the app is already launched in Google Playstore, the company has plans to launch this app for the iOS platform soon. With the motto to respect equality, Umeed LGBT Matrimony App has been launched and promoted by Umeed Matrimony Inc.
