

With 2020 In Hindsight, Global Rhythm's 'Reset The Scene' Calls for New Beginnings

Ever Wish You Could Start Over? Can We Just Reset The Scene?

Tennessee, Memphis, Jan 21, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - Global Rhythm is a soul fusion and funk band consisting of four talented musicians from around the world: Vicky Flint (London), n.e.r.d. life by D'Vo (Houston, TX), Master Pe (Brazil), and OB3ple (Sweden). Their mix of authentic instruments, soulful vocals, and funky beats will make you want to swing dance on Beale Street in Downtown Memphis.

Before formation, the bandmates of Global Rhythm had featured appearances on the lead singer, D'Vo's first album, The Codex: I've Got Next, in the song One Love as well as his second album, The Codex: Running the Point, on Me and My Friends.

Global Rhythm's newest release, 'Reset The Scene', comes at an appropriate time when all the world is looking back at 2020 with a sigh of relief that we survived. If anyone has ever desired a reset button, this song will soothe the longing soul that a reset is possible. As the lead singer states, "We are the ones, we are His children, it's up to us to make a difference."

Global Rhythm might be far apart, but when they come together you will hear the elements of a unified band as if they were jammin' it out on stage. Listen to this single on Spotify and the music video on Youtube.
