

ActiveWorx and Comdata Announce Strategic Partnership

Pennsylvania, Norristown, Feb 10, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - ActiveWorx and Comdata Announce Strategic Partnership

Norristown, PA, February 10, 2021 - ActiveWorx, Inc. (formerly Miria Systems), a leading provider of B2B Accounts Payable Automation Solutions announced its strategic partnership with Comdata to serve enterprise customers and the upper midmarket. The announcement comes on the heels of ActiveWorx's recent announcement on the general availability of B2B payments optimization services on the ActiveWorx platform.

ActiveWorx's B2B payment capabilities solve recurring business payment processing challenges through a powerful combination of workflow automation software and payment services using advanced machine learning and artificial intelligence. The solution is designed to generate impactful savings and efficiencies while providing a comprehensive view of cash requirements.

Comdata is responsible for the issuance of the largest number of commercial Mastercard cards. The combination of the ActiveWorx cloud-based platform for invoice automation and Comdata's comprehensive vCard program provides customers with the ability to lower invoice processing costs, reduce fraud risk, support AP teams working remotely, and operate at scale.

"I'm quite excited about going to market with Comdata as a partner that will inspire confidence in the overall invoice processing/payment solution that ActiveWorx can now deliver," said Marty Michael, CEO of ActiveWorx.

"We are proud to partner with ActiveWorx to help enhance their business-to-business payments solution," said Chris Shanahan, SVP of Strategic Partners at Comdata. "Our mission is to provide companies with a better way to pay and drive accounts payable innovation through technology. Our partnership with ActiveWorx will help us accomplish this mission and generate incremental revenue for our joint customers."
