

Alison Vasconcelos fala sobre sua agência de marketing pensando no período pós pandemia.

Bahia, Eunapolis, Feb 20, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - The businessman, Alison Vasconcelos communicates back to work after a difficult period for COVID-19, in his marketing agency, AV Marketing e Publicidade.

The marketing company AV Marketing e Publicidade, offers services for communication and advertising throughout the country. And his manager, Alison Vasconcelos starts a new journey in the reinvention of his work in the universe of marketing and then enters in a notorious way in advertising.

The company AV Marketing e Publicidade started on October 11, 2019, but like any company, it encountered difficulties. Throughout his career, he had passages in newsrooms of other newspapers, learning, filtering, and studying everything in an intelligent way. He worked between these periods in the communication of the Municipality of Itabela, where he could then have great experiences.

The company also announces that it will return to normal activities in early March in full swing, across the country and abroad.

Vasconcelos currently works with press relations, production, visual communication, and among the responsibilities of each sector in the AV Marketing and Advertising company. And it has been growing in the internal artistic universe, performing works for all Brazilian audiences, and is preparing major future releases.

"Encourage people" is a well-known highlight through its social networks.

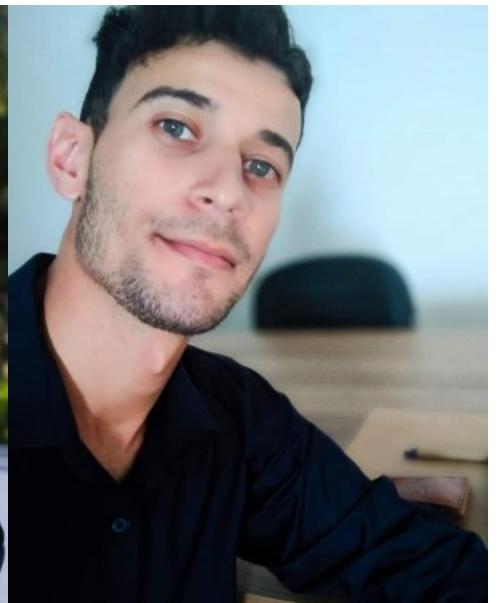

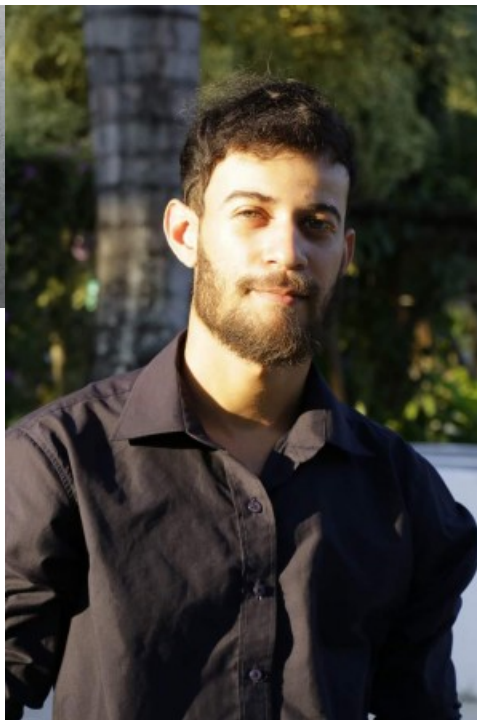

He left us a Bible verse 1 John 3: 16-17 (He who does not help his neighbor in need, does not really love him).
