New York, New York City, Feb 12, 2021 (Issuewire.com) - In practice since 1999, Dr. Dunn provides comprehensive care for families and individuals of all ages, including treating acute illness, managing chronic conditions, and providing wellness care. He practices alongside Dr. Dan Chadwick at Dunn and Chadwick Family Medicine in Crowley, Texas.

A member of Texas Health Medical Associates since June of 2008, he is also affiliated with Texas Health Huguley Hospital Fort Worth South.

Texas Health Huguley Hospital Fort Worth South is a Seventh-day Adventist medical complex in south Fort Worth, Texas operated by AdventHealth. The campus includes a 213-bed acute care hospital, imaging center, behavioral center, fitness center, retirement community, nursing center, and hospice house.

The doctor's acclaimed career in medicine began after he earned his medical degree from Loma Linda University School of Medicine in 1996. He then went on to perform his internship and residency in family medicine at Kaiser Permanente Southern California. Since completing these requirements in 1999, he has practiced family medicine with numerous medical groups and has served as a Family Practice Clinical Staff Physician at McChord Air Force Base in Washington.

As a testament to his success, Dr. Dunn is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice in family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.
