Get to know Pediatrician Dr. Denise Youssef, who serves patients in Nashua, New Hampshire.

New York, New York City, Feb 25, 2021 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Youssef, a caring and compassionate pediatrician, joined Dartmouth-Hitchcock Nashua in New Hampshire in 2002. Her areas of focus include primary care and education, adolescent issues, and acute care.

Dartmouth-Hitchcock Nashua provides quality and convenient health care services at its main office in Nashua, New Hampshire, and its satellite locations in Hudson, Merrimack, and Milford. It offers a comprehensive resource for injuries, illness, and everyday health care for the Nashua area.

A 1999 graduate of the Boston University School of Medicine, Dr. Youssef went on to perform her residency in pediatrics at Hasbro Children's Hospital in Providence, Rhode Island in 2002.

That same year, she attained board certification in pediatrics through the American Board of Pediatrics (ABP). The mission of the ABP is to advance child health by certifying pediatricians who meet standards of excellence and are committed to continuous learning and improvement.

Alongside her clinical role, Dr. Youssef serves as a Clinical Assistant Professor of Pediatrics at the Geisel School of Medicine at Dartmouth.

Pediatrics is the branch of medicine that involves the medical care of infants, children, and adolescents. The American Academy of Pediatrics recommends people be under pediatric care up to the age of 21. Pediatricians provide medical care to people ranging in age from newborns to young adults. They are trained to examine, diagnose, and treat children with a wide variety of injuries and illnesses through all of their developmental stages, as they grow and mature.
